

Chapter 5 Sensation Project

(may work individually or in groups of 2)

Pick something that brings you pleasure describe the experience and identify what senses are involved. Choose one of the senses involved (touch, smell, sight, hearing, taste) research all about this sense and conduct an experiment as part of your research (Total 100 marks)

1. Explain how this sense works using written description, pictures and or video (7 marks)

Make certain you reference three sources for your information and site them. (3 marks) -Interactive Component -use puzzles, illusions, games and whatever else works best to help others how this sense works. (5 marks)

2. Identify: something about how this sense works that you find most fascinating. (2 marks)

-identify/develop and write out a question about this sense that you would like to know the answer to. (3 marks)

3. Develop a simple experiment to test others sense of _____ (your chosen sense) *** Have teacher approve your experiment idea before moving on. Once approved: Follow the eleven steps for conducting a psychology experiment. See web link below on conducting a psychology experiment and read the Sensation Experiment Evaluation Sheet. (80 marks)

